Local Events and Services

Shape local health and care services with the FREE 'Let's Talk' event
Tuesday, 26 June 2018, 4.30pm to 8pm, Amnesty International Human Rights Centre, Shoreditch

Residents can have their say on plans for health and care in Hackney while hearing more about local services at the free 'Let's Talk' event on 26 June.

In partnership with the Council and The City of London, the City and Hackney Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) 'Let's Talk' event will give attendees an opportunity to drop in and share their thoughts and opinions about how local services can be shaped and improved.

'Let's Talk' will showcase a selection of health and wellbeing services; from mental health and diabetes, to health checks and cancer care. Residents will also be able to find out more about how designing services, which are joined up across health and care, known as Integrated Commissioning, can improve outcomes for local people.

Attendees can drop into 'Let's Talk' any time between 4.30pm and 8pm on 26 June.

'Let's Talk' will be taking place at Amnesty International Human Rights Centre, 17-25 New Inn Yard, Shoreditch, EC2A 3EA.
