Cityread London 2019

The eighth annual Cityread Festival is happening this May. The aim is to encourage Londoners to come together as one large book group, and we'd like to encourage parents, staff, and sixth form students to get involved. The title chosen this year is Sofia Khan is Not Obligated by Ayisha Malik, which is described by the people at Cityread describe as follows:

Billed as the Muslim Bridget Jones, Sofia Khan is Not Obligated is the hilarious romantic comedy from the writer behind Nadiya Hussain's bestselling The Secret Lives of the Amir Sisters. Sofia Khan is single once more, after her sort-of-boyfriend proves just a little too close to his parents. And she'd be happy that way too, if her boss hadn't asked her to write a book about the weird and wonderful world of Muslim dating. Of course, even though she definitely isn't looking for love, to write the book she does need to do a little research . . .

Libraries throughout Hackney will have multiple copies of the book to be borrowed by those who want to join in, and they will also be holding a number of events to tie in with the city-wide festival. It's a great opportunity for adults to celebrate reading as a community, and we'll be holding our own staff and sixth form book group as part of the festival in the school library during May.

Wishing you all a safe and happy Easter holiday and we look forward to seeing all of our students return in the Summer Term.
