Hackney March for climate change “The air that we Grieve”

Peaceful, family-friendly march

On 12th July, schools, local people and politicians, including Mayor of Hackney Philip Glanville and GLA representative Unmesh Desai and Extinction Rebellion groups from across East London will come together to march to demand urgent action on air pollution and the climate crisis.

The march ends at Hackney Town Hall, where a children's assembly will take place to listen to our youngest residents' views of how we can clean up our air and save our climate.

Friday 12th July, assemble 3.30 for 4.15 pm start

Where: Bethnal Green. Paradise Gardens (Next to Bethnal Green Tube Station)

Route: March to Hackney Town Hall, where a Children's Assembly for Clean Air will take place from 5pm.
