Highlights of the Week

Following their trip in November to the Into The Night exhibition at the Barbican Centre as part of their Art Barbican Box Project, our Year 9 students participated in a workshop delivered by their art mentor Barbican artist in resident Kitty Finer.

During the workshop, students responded to the performance artists Hunt and Darton, whose work they experienced at the exhibition. They worked in groups to create a series of freeze frames where they visualised a space that was designed for and exists purely for young people.
