

1.

Collect results for:

- A-Levels on 13/08/20
- GCSEs on 20/08/20

Students are happy with results and/or meet requirements for next steps (6th form/college/university).

2.

Believe that result(s) are inaccurate and decide to appeal against the grade awarded:

- Complete online Student Appeal Form A where you wish to sit a further examination in a subject as part of the Autumn 2020 examination series
- Complete online Student Appeal Form B where you wish to challenge the school's process for awarding a grade in a subject and/or any alleged unfairness
- Complete online Student Appeal Form C where you wish to request that the school challenges the examination board and the process for awarding a grade in a subject 3.

Student Appeal Form A

For students who are unhappy with their grade in a subject and wish to sit a further examination in October 2020 (A-Levels) or November 2020 (GCSEs).

Complete and submit this appeal form by:

- 21/08/20 for A-Levels or
- 28/08/20 for GCSEs

Please consider the following when deciding to submit this appeal form:

- are you already able to move to your next steps (6th form/college/university)?
- are you confident that you will perform better in the additional examinations and that you have maintained your work/studies?
- are you able to balance studying for these additional examinations with work you have started on new courses?

Submit Student Appeal Form A
Your appeal will be reviewed and you will be contacted regarding the next actions.

Student Appeal Form B

For students who are unhappy with their grade in a subject and believe that there has been malpractice in terms of: potential bias, discrimination and/or any other reason why they were not fairly assigned a grade and/or ranking on the part of the school. Complete and submit this appeal form by:

- TBC

Please ensure you have read and understood the information we shared about the process for determining grades and rank orders and how it was quality assured so that it was fair, layered and robust.

Submit Student Appeal Form B
Your appeal will be reviewed and you will be contacted regarding the next actions.

Student Appeal Form C

For students who are unhappy with their grade in a subject and wish to request that the school challenges the relevant examination board in terms of: errors in the submission of information; errors in the calculating, assigning and/or communicating of a grade; significant changes in the year's cohort which have not been properly taken into account during the standardisation process. Complete and submit this appeal form by:

- TBC

Please note these instances will be rare and there will have to be a significant change to affect calculated grades.

Submit Student Appeal Form C
Your appeal will be reviewed and you will be contacted regarding the next actions.
