Closing 29th May

Hackney Museum is looking for 12 young people to take part in the Hackney Young Curators project. As part of the project, they will explore the Museum's collection of objects and items and create a public exhibition and event with the support of the Museum staff. Working directly with a cultural institution and public collection/archive will be a valuable experience for pupils looking to study arts, humanities or creative subjects at university or college and would be a unique line on any CV or UCAS application.
