

Summarise:

Your job is to find the main ideas, events, details about characters or information, and condense it using your own words.

In this chapter...

Overall, I noticed that...

Which parts do you think...

Question:

Your job is to think about the questions you have as we read, including tricky questions to check to understand what has happened.

What did you notice about...

What does it suggest when...

What is your opinion of...

Why does...

Clarify:

Your job is to focus on any confusion and clear it up, identify tricky words that the class needs to define and to help everyone understand key ideas.

What might the word ____ mean?

Why do you think _____ happened?

How does....

Predictor:

Your job is to consider what could happen next or to think about typical text types.

What expectations do you have when...?

How might ____ react after....?

Based on what we read about _____, what do you think ...?

