

Dear Parent/Carer

We pride ourselves in having the best teachers possible for the students in our care. To enable this to happen we take our responsibility seriously to invest in future generations by training teachers.

We are very fortunate to have a strong partnership with London District East Teaching School Hub who offer a one year programme of teacher training through Ambition Institute (a well-respected national training provider).

Train to be a teacher

Do you know anyone interested in training to teach?

If so, please encourage them to attend a train-to-teach event. These events take place over Zoom and provide an overview of the training programme and the opportunity to ask questions.
